WHEN ALL IS DONE

When all is done, and my last word is said,

And ye who loved me murmur, "He is dead,"

Let no one weep, for fear that I should know,

And sorrow too, that ye should sorrow so.

When all is done, say not my day is o'er

And that through night I seek a dimmer shore;

Say rather that my morn has just begun,

I greet the dawn and not a setting sun,

When all is done.

- Paul L. Dunbar.
